CANDIDATES ARE ACTIVE AS VOTE DEADLINE NEARS

Lyons Heads G.O.P. Round-up Nov. 7; Democrats Are Confident

With but little time left for the mending of political fences, and the election date rapidly drawing near, candidates of both the Republican and Democratic parties in Lake county are intensifying their rivalry.

Republicans will have as their "grand wind-up" Nov. 7 at Libertyville the homecoming of Richard J. Lyons, G. O. P. senatorial nominee.

When Lyons makes his homecoming address in Libertyville on election eve, a radio network will carry his final appeal to oust New Deal policies and waste by electing Republican candidates. The rally will be held in the Libertyville Township High school.

Democrats also cheerfully Democratic leaders also feel that prospects are bright and expressed the belief this week that their entire slate of candidates will be elected.

They have issued general denials that they have had any part in the promulgation of articles in newspapers in Lake county charging alleged irregularities in office by two Republican office holders.

The Democrats now have one lone office-holder, Russ Alford, county clerk, who seeks re-election. They have been inspired by Alford's success in the previous election, and by the fact that they also very nearly secured the sheriff's office in a close contest at the same time.

McMillen Support Strong
Another candidate assured of splendid support in this vicinity as well as elsewhere throughout the county is Jim McMillen, Democratic aspirant for the office of county treasurer.

McMillen, who won fame as captain and All-American tackle on the championship University of Illinois football team in 1924, maintained his position as a champion intercollegiate wrestler and was graduated from the university's school of engineering with high scholastic honors, has since won international prominence as a wrestler. He owns and operates a large farm near Antioch.

GIRLS OF 4-H TO ORGANIZE TODAY

Plans for Winter Will Be Made at Meeting Held This Afternoon

The Antioch 4-H club is holding an organization meeting for its winter activities this afternoon after school at the home of its new leader, Mrs. Earl J. Hays.

A "party-a-month" project is to be undertaken by the club this winter. Plans for this will be discussed, officers elected, and a regular meeting day decided upon today. Mrs. Helen Volk, Grayslake, who is the Lake county 4-H supervisor, will be the speaker.

All girls between the ages of 10 and 21 are eligible for membership. Mrs. Raether, who was leader of the Antioch club during the summer, is now organizing a group in her own territory, at Pikeville.

Recreational Committee Names Hawkins Chairman

F. O. Hawkins has been chosen by the newly elected Antioch Recreational committee as its chairman, Robert Wilton as treasurer, and Mrs. E. J. Hays as secretary.

The committee will meet with Miss Madeline Millikan, county W. P. A. recreational director, soon after her return on Oct. 28 from a brief vacation.

It is expected that Miss Millikan will have a number of useful suggestions to offer as to recreation programs conducted in various nearby cities, and that these will be found helpful in planning the Antioch program.

Leave for Canada on Deer Hunting Journey

Edmund Vos, C. J. Roeschlein, formerly of Antioch and now of Chicago; Dr. B. E. Albright, Chicago, and A. H. Vos, of Kansasville, Wis., left Friday by motor for the Lake of the Woods region in Canada, where they are spending a week or 10 days deer hunting.

Praises Antioch News Service to Community

In the morning's mail comes the following note of appreciation and encouragement to the editor of the Antioch News:

"We purchased a farm and moved out here Sept. 16th. Having lived in the crowded, smoky city of Chicago for many years, you can well imagine how thoroughly we are enjoying the fresh country air. How very true are the words of a wise man of the East, 'The city is the home of the intellect, while the country is the home of the soul.'"

"Thanks so much for the October 6th issue of the Antioch News, which was left in our box recently. Enclosed is our check for $1.50 for a year's subscription."

"Having been actively engaged in publicity work the past five or six years and receiving papers from all over the United States and Canada, I am in a good position to sincerely say that the communities you serve can be proud of the Antioch News."

FIRE DEPARTMENT COMMITTEES FOR YEAR APPOINTED

"Fire Fans" Requested Not to Aid Unasked, to Avoid Accidents

President L. D. Powles of the Antioch Volunteer Fire department made his appointments of committees to serve for the coming year at the monthly meeting Tuesday night. They are as follows:

Audit and finance—Frank B. Huber, Cletus Vos and L. R. Van Patten. Entertainment—John Gaa, Irving Elms and Herman Rosing.

Delegates to the Lake County Firemen's association—George Miller, Robert Wilton and John L. Horan. Resolutions—George Garland, C. E. Hennings and James Dunn.

Ways and Means—George Miller, Andrew Cobb and Dudley Kennedy. Custodian over department equipment, Assistant Chief R. F. Allner. Publicity—John L. Horan and C. B. Shultis.

Sergeant-at-Arms—John Gaa. A lengthy discussion was carried on pertaining to persons outside of the fire department who are more than willing to assist at fires, ride the fire apparatus and in general be a "good fire fan."

Could Be Costly
"The officers and firemen on the active list must draw a line on this practice," it was stated during the discussion. "It has gotten to a point where some of the firemen feel that a stop must be enforced on this matter and in order to go about it in a good spirited way, we call your attention to the fact that only active firemen are covered with accident insurance and compensation insurance."

"It is further suggested to the fire fans that they should not either ride the fire apparatus or assist at fires unless in the case of real necessity where man power is needed and then wait until called upon by regular officers in charge of the fire. This will save a lot of worry and expense on the part of the firemen as well as the village and fire district officials who would probably have to appear in court in order to save the taxpayers from a large bill of expense in the case of a suit for accidental damages."

To Purchase Uniforms
The department has appointed a committee to arrange for a public function to be held during the winter in order to raise funds to purchase uniforms for the active roll call, which means more than 30 uniforms at a cost of $25 each.

The department has not had any new uniforms, outside of one or two, since 1930.

Five School Principals Give Panel Discussion

R. E. Clabaugh, principal of the Antioch Graded school, was one of five grade school principals who took part in a panel discussion at a meeting of the Grayslake Parent Teacher association Monday evening.

The topic discussed was "The Family's Share in the School Program." Taking part besides Mr. Clabaugh were the principals of the Grunee, Libertyville and Mundelein schools and Roger Dardenn, the Grayslake principal.

DISCONTINUE BUS SERVICE FOR FALL, WINTER MONTHS

Motor Coach Schedules to Waukegan Suspended for Coming Months

Bus service between the Lakes region and Waukegan has been discontinued by the American Coach company for the winter months. The company plans to resume this accommodation again in the spring, in line with the schedule followed this year.

The convenient transportation afforded between the resort region and the numerous railway facilities at Waukegan has proved useful to visitors to the lakes and also to residents of the Antioch area.

The service was opened on Saturday, May 21, this year, and closed on Monday, Oct. 17.

Franchised in 1937
The American Motor Coach company was granted a franchise for bus travel between the lakes region and Waukegan in June, 1937, and began its regular schedule July 1 that year.

A decline in bus travel in the fall made it necessary for the company to petition the Illinois Interstate Commerce commission for a temporary suspension of the franchise until spring.

This year's bus service began more than a month earlier than the previous year's. Officials of the company have stated in the past that they are interested in establishing a year-round schedule in the event the volume of travel warrants doing this.

MARY McCORMIC TICKETS POPULAR

Much Interest Being Shown in Radio Star's Visit Here Nov. 1

Not only Antioch residents, but music lovers from surrounding communities and towns are showing a great deal of interest in the visit Mary McCormic, radio star and opera singer, will pay here Nov. 1.

Miss McCormic will sing in the Antioch Township High School auditorium on the evening of that date, under the auspices of the girls of the high school.

Tickets are being sold by the girls and the announcement is also being made that for the benefit of those who may not have been able to procure their tickets ahead of time, that some will be available at the door.

The concert will start at 8 o'clock, and the doors are to be open at 7:30 o'clock. There will be no reserved seats.

Ushers for the concert will include Clarice Minto, Janice Kapple, Eileen Snyder, Mildred Horan, Betty Lu Williams, Lois Bonner, Ruth Turnock and Phyllis Luedtke.

CLUB HEARS TALK ON COLOR ETCHING

Woman's Club Members Pay Visit to Whitewater Studio Monday

The unique experience of a visit to the only color-etching studio in the United States was enjoyed by 40 members of the Antioch Woman's club who made a trip to Whitewater, Wis., Monday.

The group started in the morning, by auto. On their arrival, the club members enjoyed a luncheon at the "Green Shutters" tea room.

Afterward they went to the studio of Leon R. Pescheret, who gave a talk on "One-Plate Color Etching." Mr. Pescheret, who studied the color-etching process in Belgium, made two etchings while the club was there, to illustrate his talk.

The club's next meeting will be a "Guest Day" on Nov. 7.

Attends State Economics Conclave at Peoria, Ill.

Mrs. Ruby Richey, second vice-president of the Illinois Home Economics association, left last evening to attend the state conference to be held by the organization at the Pere Marquette hotel in Peoria, Ill. Mrs. Richey is instructor in economics at Antioch Township High school.

THE BAD NEWS

FORMER ATTORNEY GENERAL WILL BE MASONIC GUEST

Oscar Carlstrom to Help Honor Lodgemen at Pastmaster's Night

Honorable Oscar E. Carlstrom, former Attorney General of the state of Illinois, will be among the prominent Masons who will gather here Tuesday night at the annual observance of Pastmaster's Night by Sequoit Lodge, No. 827, in Masonic Temple, Mr. Bolton.

Carlstrom, long prominent in Masonic circles, and one of the state's leading orators, will be the principal speaker, according to Worshipful Master Emil Lubkeman, who heads the committee for the program and the banquet to be served at 6:30 o'clock.

Sequit Lodge, according to record, was formed 45 years ago and the charter was granted October 4, 1893. There were 23 charter members, only eight of whom survive.

Thirty-one Masters had served the lodge as Worshipful Master prior to the election of Emil Lubkeman last year. F. M. Simmons, now deceased, was the first head of the local lodge, having been elected at the organization meeting 45 years ago. Others following in chief officer were:

31 Pastmasters: *F. M. Simmons, *E. H. Ames, *John Welch, C. E. Van Patten, E. L. Simmons, *A. N. Tiffany, *Jos. Turner, M. J. Huber, Sol La Plant, *E. C. Sabin, J. C. James, F. M. Huber, V. F. Ziegler, *Geo. Wallis, Elmer Brook, *George Landgraf, P. O. Hawkins, *Frank Kandlik, A. Rosenfeld, *Horace Adams, E. S. Garrett, Ray Webb, J. H. Caple, A. M. Hawkins, H. J. Cubbon, A. Pesat, Jr., Robert J. Wilton, Samuel E. Pollock, Elmer Hunter, Arthur Wertz, L. R. Van Patten. *Deceased.

ALL IN READINESS FOR "JAMBOREE"

Township Schools Are Sent Invitations to Take Part in the Parade

Invitations have been sent to pupils of the Cedar Lake, Channel Lake, Oakland, Emmons, Hickory, Bean Hill and Grass Lake schools to take part in the fifth annual "Halloween Jamboree" here Monday evening.

The jamboree will open with a costume parade for all school and pre-school age children of the township, starting at 6 o'clock from the Antioch Graded school.

The parade line of march will be down Main street to the Antioch theater. There the children who are in costume will be admitted free of charge to the theatre for a showing of the Sonja Henie picture, "Lucky Star."

The judging of the costumes for prizes which the Antioch Lions club is awarding will take place shortly after the arrival at the theatre.

The Lions club is also arranging for official traffic supervision along the line of march during the parade.

Republican Rally Will Include Social Features

Music, dancing and refreshments, as well as the introduction of all Republican candidates, will be features of the big G. O. P. rally to be held here Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the Danish hall.

Since it will probably be the last big rally to be held by the Republicans in this locality before the election, they are planning to make it an outstanding one, it is announced by C. K. Anderson, committeeman for precinct 1, and James Stearns, committeeman for precinct 2.

Congressman Ralph E. Church is planning to be present at the rally, according to word received by the committeemen.

Young Republicans Will Hold Rally Here Saturday

Robert Ticken, Libertyville, and George S. McGaughey, Antioch village attorney, will be the principal speakers at a Young Republican rally to be held in the Danish hall Saturday night, according to word from William Hattendorf, chairman. Ticken will discuss the state candidates and McGaughey will review the qualifications of county candidates.

ANTIOCH MAY LOSE U. S. AID FOR NEW HALL

Low Funds Endanger Grant, Sen. J. Hamilton Lewis Informs Mayor

Antioch officials have been notified in a telegram from U. S. Senator James Hamilton Lewis that this town's prospects of securing government aid for the construction of a new village hall are looking rather doubtful at this time.

The message, addressed to Mayor Bartlett, reads as follows:

"Hon. George B. Bartlett: "Public Works Administration advises Illinois number 2338 is under consideration, but due to low funds no assurance of further allotments can be made."

Jas. Hamilton Lewis, U. S. Sen."

No. 2338 is the one which was assigned to the Antioch project when an application for funds was made in August.

Answers Inquiries

Senator Lewis' telegram was sent from Washington, D. C., in response to inquiries made by Mayor Bartlett and Postmaster James F. Horan following a special village election at which a bond issue was voted for raising part of the funds for the hall locally, the balance to be made up by the government grant.

The information sent by the senator does not indicate that conditions definitely preclude the possibility of a grant for the Antioch project. However, it is felt that he is in a position to be well advised in the matter, and that local chances of securing the needed Public Works Administration grant at the present time are comparatively slight.

The Village had voted, 147-49, on Tuesday, October 4, in favor of a bond issue to raise 55 percent of the estimated $31,000 needed for the hall. The remaining 45 percent would, it was expected, be supplied by a government grant for which application had been made at an earlier date.

Would Employ Many
The large majority favoring the bond issue—3 to 1—testified to the strong local interest in the building of a new hall.

It was felt that besides fulfilling numerous civic needs, construction of the new hall would supply employment for a large number of men in the vicinity, indirectly benefiting the entire community.

In discussions of Antioch's possible loss of the government grant, it has been pointed out that Chicago and Cook county have fared extremely well in the matter of such grants, even recently.

Accident Breeders

The nation-wide reduction in highway fatalities this year challenges the mobilized forces of the traffic safety movement to go forward with a yet broader program to combat existing maladjustments, said Wallace Falvey, chairman of the advisory committee of the National Conservation bureau, recently. Paying tribute to the part state authorities have taken in saving lives, sparing human suffering and protecting property on America's highways, he emphasized that greater uniformity of laws, regulations and administrative practices of motor vehicle departments would benefit not only the officials charged with motor vehicle control, but also legislators and the great body of motorists.

"The multiplicity of traffic control devices and regulations which confront the motorist when he ventures beyond his home territory, create confusion and irritation," he declared. "And confusion and irritation breed accidents."

States and municipalities developed traffic control in a more or less helter-skelter fashion. No effort was made to achieve uniformity. The consequences are obvious. A motorist traveling in a strange territory is confused. He drives through overhead control light because in his town the lights are placed on sidewalks, or roadsides, or on the pavement itself. He looks in the wrong places for Stop and warning signs. He violates laws innocently, and unknowingly takes risks that lead to accidents.

The time for a change has arrived. We have managed to start the accident curve downward. And the inauguration of a movement to standardize traffic control devices and regulations would help keep it going down.

Trade Rivalry May Start Hostilities

Britain's new "understanding" with Nazi Germany is in danger of being disrupted by a problem that hasn't been much publicized as yet—but will be heard of to a much larger extent in the future.

That problem is Germany's usurpation of trade areas that England used to regard as almost her exclusive province. The reich is as aggressive in its commercial policy as in its bold diplomatic and military policies.

As one commentator puts it, "Germany has made no bones about her intentions of dominating the Balkans. . . . The Germans say they intend to dominate from the Baltic sea to the Black sea. Worse than that, from the British standpoint, they are making serious inroads into British markets in India, South Africa and Australia."

That has already resulted in a loss of untold thousands of pounds in foreign trade to the Empire. It seems inevitable that it will result in much more serious losses in the future. Such countries as Turkey, Greece, Rumania and Yugoslavia used to buy the great majority of their foreign purchases from Britain. Today they are buying more and more from Germany. One reason is that in some cases Hitler offers extremely favorable terms. And even more potent reason, some say, is that he also gives them to understand that if they don't patronize him they are liable to violent invasion.

Anglo-German trade rivalry, in the view of most experts, was one of the main causes of the last world war. Both nations attempted to camouflage that fact, and attributed the war to various opposed causes, but the statistics tell the story. And it is not impossible that Anglo-German trade rivalry could start the next world war.

Swing Bands vs. Taxes

"Facts About Taxes and Public Spending," is the title of a pamphlet issued by the United States Chamber of Commerce. The information it contains has a vital and direct bearing on every living soul within the borders of the United States. Yet it is safe to say that the average citizen would not bother to pick it up even if he saw it lying conveniently at hand, much less read it through with the thoughtful consideration it deserves. No, he would far rather listen to a swing band than give the short time necessary to acquire an understanding of his government's fiscal affairs and their relation to his job, to the lives of his family, and to the freedom which he so blithely takes for granted.

It probably means nothing to him that the annual cost of government—federal, state, and local, mounted from $8,918,000,000 in 1923, to $16,900,000,000 in 1937. It probably means nothing to him that his share of the annual cost of government rose from $79.96 in 1923 to $130.75 in 1937. He has no idea that he actually bears his share of this cost. The stupid think the rich pay the cost of government. They don't know that "if every dollar of income of persons receiving more than $5,000 a year were to be taken in taxes, the sum would pay the cost of our numerous governments for only about six months."

Are you one of the willfully uninformed or plain ignorant "average" citizens?

Now That the Week Is Over

Fire Prevention Week is over. But it will be a major tragedy for the nation if we simply forget about it, as if it had never been.

This year unprecedented effort was given to instructing the public on the hazards that breed fire and how they may be eliminated. The radio, newspapers, magazines—all avenues of communication joined in the great work. And equally important, according to reports, the public showed an increased appetite for information.

So far as you are concerned, every week should be fire prevention week. You have learned of the importance of periodically repairing your heating plant—of the dangers inherent in improper storage of inflammables—of the hazards of accumulations of old newspapers, clothes and other stuff that should go to the junkman—of the chance you take when you amateurishly repair electric cords or put a penny behind a burned out fuse. If you're wise you eliminated these hazards in your home during the week. Now—make a note in your memorandum book to keep up your own fire prevention campaign continuously.

Thousands of men gave their time to making Fire Prevention Week a success. Tens of thousands of dollars were spent—and the only hope of return is in the coining of saved lives and property. All this was done in an attempt to protect you and your neighbors—to save your home from destruction, and your loved ones from the most horrible of deaths. Remember that—and determine to do your part to reduce avoidable fire waste in America.

News on the Political Front

"The next Senate will be every man for himself," observed Senator Wheeler in Washington, upon his return from Montana to resume his active duties in the legislative branch of the nation. He declared that "the New Dealers don't know how to write a bill. They can't make things work."

It was Senator Wheeler who led the forces that defeated the President's Court and reorganization bills.

Senator Wheeler expects to retire from the Senate in 1940. He says that Senate Leader Barkley has lost all his powers and that the Senate will be an absolutely independent legislative body when it meets in January.

Executions Before Dawn

Custom of Sunworshippers

It is impossible to say just how dawn became the favorite time for executions. The custom of putting condemned persons to death early in the morning has been prevalent since ancient times, observes an authority in the Indianapolis News. One writer suggests that it may be a survival of the practices of prehistoric sun worshippers who offered human sacrifices to the sun as it rose in the East. Another thinks the practice is of military origin; persons condemned in the military are generally shot as early as possible on the specified day, that is, just as soon as it is light enough for the firing squad to see to take aim.

There are several reasons for following the custom. The day on which an execution is to take place is set by the court; the exact hour is left to the discretion of prison officials. Usually the unpleasant task is performed when it will interfere least with the routine of prison life, which is as early as possible in the day, when the prisoners are in their cells and most of them are asleep.

An execution has an unfavorable influence on all the inmates of a prison and, if the condemned prisoners were electrocuted or hanged during the day or early in the night, their fellow prisoners might be incited to riot. Where executions are public the number of spectators is reduced by having them at dawn.

Lesson for October 30

PERSONAL RIGHTS AND WHERE THEY END

LESSON TEXT—Ecclesiastes 2:1-3, 10, 11; Romans 6:17-23; 14:21.
GOLDEN TEXT—What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?—Romans 6:15.

"Personal liberty"—what endless misuse was made of that expression in the days when men seeking the right to again flood this country with intoxicating liquors were attacking prohibition. One would think that some of our political leaders and our newspaper editors would blush for shame when they see what has now been accomplished in the name of personal liberty.

My liberty ends, as someone has well said, where yours begins. I have the personal liberty to swing my arms as far as the tip of your nose, but there my liberty ends. All of life is, and necessarily must be built on that principle. For the Christian there is an even higher measure of responsibility—his relationship to God and his consequent heart interest in the welfare of his fellow men.

Our Scripture portions for today present a sharp contrast. Man without God, but with every earthly advantage is pictured in Ecclesiastes in his fruitless search for real joy. Then man as the glad bondsman of Jesus Christ is spoken of in Romans as truly free and joyful.

I. The Way of Emptiness and Disappointment (Eccles. 2:1-3, 10, 11).

1. Physical pleasures do not satisfy (Eccles. 2:1-3). Men who have tasted the distress and disappointment of life are prone to think that if they only had all the money they wanted, and an opportunity to partake of life's "thrills" they would be happy. Solomon had everything. He deliberately set himself to prove the pleasures of this world. He planned to "enjoy" intoxicants—doing it "with wisdom"—that is, not in a drunken debauch that would bring remorse. Note it, you who advocate the moderate use of alcohol (whatever that may be) Solomon found it to be only vain emptiness. (See Prov. 23:31, 32.)

What is true of wine is also true of the attempt to satisfy oneself by the gratification of any physical appetite. Those who live for the pleasures of the flesh can reap only corruption (Gal. 6:8). The hectic search for such satisfaction by countless men and women today reveals that they, like Solomon, cannot find it. If they did, they would cease their wild searching. It just is not there.

2. Pleasures of the mind do not satisfy (Eccles. 2:10, 11). Solomon sought real joy in labor, in accomplishing worthy ends. There is a satisfaction in work well done, but that joy is only lasting when the doing of the work is for the glory of God. Work for its own sake—yes, even wisdom for its own sake (Eccles. 1:12-18)—is not enough to satisfy the soul of man. The great poet Goethe, who set himself to enjoy the higher pleasures of life—art, science, and literature—came to his seventy-fifth year to testify that he had "never had four weeks of genuine pleasure." Satisfaction is not in the pleasures of the aesthetic nature.

II. The Way of Victory, Peace, and True Joy (Rom. 6:17-23; 14:21).

We say with Paul "God be thanked" that there is a way for men to find freedom from the sin and disappointment of life. It comes by

1. Personal allegiance to God (Rom. 6:17-23). Clear thinking on spiritual matters recognizes that the man who boasts of his personal liberty, his freedom from God's control over his life is in reality the slave of sin (vv. 17-19; Titus 3:3). On the other hand, the one who is a willing bondsman of Jesus Christ is free. The way of victory and peace is to yield to God, even as the way of defeat and disappointment is to yield to sin. The first way leads to joy in this life and eternal fellowship with God. The other way results in ultimate ghastly disillusionment in this life and eternal spiritual death and separation from God.

2. Recognized responsibility for others (Rom. 14:21). It should not take two minutes of intelligent consideration for any man to understand that "none of us liveth to himself and no man dieth to himself" (Rom. 14:7). Yet that is the obvious assumption under which men live, leaving behind them not only their own wrecked lives, but carrying along in the stream of their personal influence their acquaintances, friends and members of their families.

Throwing at Newly Married Ancient Custom The custom of throwing shoes at newly married couples is very old and may be a relic of the ancient practice of giving a shoe to another to symbolize the transfer of possession. Sometimes new ownership was symbolized by throwing the shoe on the property in question. "Over Edom will I cast out my shoe," says Psalm 60: 8, meaning that the country was to be subdued. In Ruth 4:7, we read:

"Now this was the manner in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning changing, for to confirm all things; a man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbor; and this was a testimony in Israel." Accordingly, when Boaz's kinsman relinquished his rights to Ruth and her inheritance, he "drew off his shoe" in the presence of witnesses.

Among the Anglo-Saxons it was customary for the father to give one of his daughter's shoes to the bridegroom, who touched her on the head with it, the ceremony signifying the passage of authority and dominion over the daughter from parent to husband. Later, it is supposed, the custom degenerated and the shoe was thrown after the couple as they departed for their new house.

Some writers, however, believe that throwing shoes at newly married pairs represents missile-throwing and is a savage survival of the days when the bride was often carried away by force from her people who attempted to drive off her abductor. This theory seems to be partially confirmed by the practice in Turkey and other parts of the Near East, where the bridegroom alone is chased by the guests and pelted with slippers.

A FLATTERING HAT

It's the soft draping of the pale almond green felt and the slight curling of the shaded rust ostrich plumes that make this hat so flattering. The long suede gloves are in the rust tone.

About Boston

Boston was not the first of the Massachusetts bay settlements, and Salem and other places established before it had administrations of their own. But from the time the colony and state may be said to have had a capital, it has always been Boston.

Beatrice Bozarth, Waukegan, orthopedic field nurse for Lake county, will be the speaker Friday evening at 7 o'clock at a "Guest Night" program being sponsored by the Channel Lake Community club.

The event will be held at the Channel Lake school, and will include a free card party. Bunco, pinocle and other games will be played, with prize awards, and refreshments will be served afterward.

Committee chairmen are Einar Sorenson, prizes; Ruth Wood, refreshments, and Nicholas Zeien, publicity.

ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE OF
LOIS WHITE, ROUND LAKE,
TO DR. L. E. FOULKE, TUES.

Mr. and Mrs. Gifford White, Round Lake, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Lois Marie, to Dr. Lawrence Edward Foulke in a ceremony which took place Tuesday in the La Grange First Congregational church. The Rev. E. Paul Sylvester officiated.

The bride, wearing a spruce-green suit and matching accessories, was attended by her cousin, Lois Wilkinson. Robert Foulke served as best man for his brother.

Miss White, a graduate of the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts and the University of Wisconsin, has been employed teaching and supervising art in the Cassitt school of LaGrange. Dr. Foulke, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Foulke of Spring Grove, was graduated from Lewis Institute in 1931 and from the University of Illinois College of Medicine in 1935. He served his internship at Ravenswood hospital in Chicago and practiced in Morris City before locating in Washington, D. C. Dr. and Mrs. Foulke will be at home at the capital after a trip to Florida and through the south.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"Probation After Death" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 23.

The Golden Text was, "God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil" (Eccl. 12:14).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Charge them that are rich in this world that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; That they do good that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life" (1 Timothy 6:17-19).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "When being understood, life will be recognized as neither material nor finite, but its reality—a God universal good; and the belief that life, or mind, was ever in a finite form, or good in evil, will be destroyed" (p. 76).

Gale Page received her entire training with Mrs. Gilbert.

Lions Have Dinner
at Hermann's Restaurant

Unfinished business and prospective activities occupied the attention of the Antioch Lions club at the dinner meeting Monday night at Ed Knutson's Hermann's Restaurant at Bluff Lake.

In the absence of President Walter Scott, and first vice president, Dr. D. W. Deering, the meeting was in charge of Robert C. Allen, 2nd vice president. Plans were completed for the club's co-operation with the local schools, Antioch theatre and the Antioch News for the Halloween jamboree to be staged for juveniles here Monday night. Serving on this committee are G. W. Joedicker, James Horan and George Wagner.

The Lions will contribute the prizes and assist with the big party.

Plans for some unusual holiday features for the community are being matured by club members.

"HARVEST DINNER"
IS BEING HELD BY GRAYSLAKE CHURCH

The Congregational church of Grayslake is holding its annual "Harvest dinner" this evening.

Refreshments and prizes will feature the card party to be held by Friendship circle at the home of Mrs. H. B. Gaston, Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles Whipple, Grayslake, is at St. Therese's hospital for surgery.

Mrs. Leona Petersen entertained the members of Friendship circle at a meeting at her home on Spafford avenue yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Dora Schmitt, Round Lake, is a medical patient at St. Therese's hospital in Waukegan.

Dr. and Mrs. D. N. Deering returned Tuesday from Iowa where they had spent ten days the guests of relatives. The Doctor reports that he had good luck on his duck shooting excursions in that state.

Howard Gaston of the News firm is ill at his home on Spafford street. "Old fashioned flu," the doctor said.

Isaac, of Hebrew Origin, Name for Many Notables

The name Isaac, of Hebrew origin, has a curious meaning—"the laughter." The Bible Isaac, son of Abraham and father of Jacob, is said to have lived to 180, writes Florence A. Cowles in the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Isaac I was emperor of Constantinople in the Eleventh century, and Isaac II sovereign of the East in the Twelfth century.

Izaak Walton (1593-1683), English essayist and poet, is called "the father of angling." His "Compleat Angler" appeared in five editions in his lifetime and has been published more than 100 times since his death.

Sir Isaac Newton (1642-1727), great English mathematician and natural philosopher, discovered in the fall of an apple the law of gravitation, investigated the nature of light and the laws of motion.

Rev. Isaac Watts (d. 1748) wrote hymns, also poems for children, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," "Let Dogs Delight to Bark and Bite," etc.

Among other noted Isaacs of the past are: Allerton (d. 1659) wealthy Pilgrim Father who came to America on the first voyage of the Mayflower and whose daughter, Mary, was the last survivor of the Mayflower company; Backus (d. 1806) American clergyman who advocated separation of church and state; Bickerstaffe (d. 1812) Irish playwright, author of "The Miller of Dee," etc.; Chauncey (d. 1840) American naval hero of the War of 1812 and later commandant of the Brooklyn navy yard; Hull (d. 1843) American naval officer.

Babbitt (d. 1882) soap manufacturer and inventor of Babbitt metal, an alloy, for which he was given a gold medal and a grant by congress; Taylor (d. 1889) American physician who suggested the hypodermic use of morphia and strychnia; Hayes (d. 1887) early Arctic explorer; Singer (d. 1875) founder of the Singer Sewing Machine company; Pitman, Sir (1813-97), inventor of the Pitman system of shorthand; and Funk (d. 1912) co-founder of the publishing firm of Funk & Wagnalls.

Gallaudet Was First to Start School for Deaf

Dr. Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, for whom Gallaudet college is named, was the first American educator to establish a school for the deaf in this country.

Born in Philadelphia on December 10, 1787, he was a tutor and a theological student, but, because of ill-health, declined a ministerial position.

Then Gallaudet became acquainted with a deaf child named Alice Cogswell and it was his interest in her education which led him to devote his life to the education of the deaf. Furnished with funds raised by Alice's father and a number of friends, he went to Europe to make a study of methods employed there.

Upon his return, relates Leslie Hartley in the Washington Star, Gallaudet, in 1817, founded at Hartford, Conn., the first free American school for the deaf and was its president until 1830. During that period he was able to train a number of men in his methods of teaching and these, in turn, became heads of similar schools all over the country.

Dr. Gallaudet married one of his pupils, Sophia Fowler. They had two sons: Thomas, who became a missionary to the deaf, and Edward Miner, who was the first superintendent of the Columbia Institution for the Deaf when it was established in Washington. The advanced department of this institution, which is the only college for the deaf in the world, is named in honor of Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet.

Australian Opossums Beautiful
Among the most beautiful animals of the Australian "bush" are many species of opossums. Some kinds are richly furred and as a consequence millions of them have been caught by trappers. The most prized are the silver-grays, and pelts from these animals make beautiful fur coats. Opossums are protected in most of the states, but occasionally they become pests to farmers and fruit-growers, and then an open season is declared. They sleep in the trees of the forests during the day-time and come out to feed at night. Australia, sometimes called the "Topsy-Turvy continent" is "different," more especially in its flora and fauna. In this geologically ancient continent, remarkable animals have survived, animals which provide living links with pre-historic times.

How the Throne Descends When a Sovereign Passes

Within the reigning English family the throne descends according to the same principle of primogeniture that formerly governed in the inheritance of land. When a sovereign dies, the eldest son—who is by birth duke of Cornwall and is created prince of Wales and earl of Chester—inherits; if he is not living, his eldest surviving son succeeds, or in lieu of a son, the eldest surviving daughter. If no heir is available in this branch of the family, the deceased sovereign's second son (or a son or daughter thereof) inherits, and so on, elder sons being always preferred to younger, and male heirs to female, notes a writer in the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

As Queen Victoria was an only child, the daughter of Edward, duke of Kent, the fourth son of George III, the throne would have descended to Ernest, duke of Cumberland and earl of Armagh, the eighth child and fifth son of George III, in the event of Victoria's death before she became queen.

Victoria ascended the throne upon the death of William IV, the third son of George III. William had three daughters who predeceased him.

Stevens' Engine First to Pull a Train on a Track

Three dates are important in the history of the steam locomotive. On October 23, 1824, the first steam locomotive that actually pulled a train on a track, that built by John Stevens, was run on a circular track on his estate at Hoboken, says a writer in the Philadelphia Inquirer.

The first locomotive for railroad use was the "Stourbridge Lion," which was built by the George Stephenson works upon the Tyne river in England. Horatio Allen was sent to England by the Delaware & Hudson Railroad company to buy it. The engine traveled at the speed of 10 miles an hour. Its first run in the United States was on August 9, 1829, on the tracks of the Delaware & Hudson between Carbondale and Honesdale, the canal terminus in Pennsylvania.

The "Tom Thumb," designed by Peter Cooper, was the first locomotive built in the United States to draw passengers. On August 28, 1830, it carried 28 passengers 13 miles over the tracks of the Baltimore & Ohio in 1 hour and 15 minutes.

No Classes at Graded School Friday or Monday

No classes will be held at the Antioch Graded school on either Friday or Monday.

Tomorrow the teachers will follow their annual custom of visiting some outstanding elementary school. Chosen for their "Visiting Day" this year is the model practice school at the National College of Education in Evanston.

On Monday, the Antioch teachers will attend a meeting of the Lake Shore division of the Illinois Educational association, in Evanston. The division, which includes all of Lake and Cook counties outside of Chicago, is meeting in two sections, one in Cicero and the other in Evanston.

Birds on Guard Duty

Many birds when feeding have one of their number on guard, and it is his duty to warn the others when danger approaches. Even in the farmyard you can hear "bird language" when the mother hen emits a peculiar "squawk" which warns the chickens that a hawk is flying overhead. The way they dash for cover leaves no doubt that they understand.

RENOVATING THIN PASTURE ADVISED

Seeding of Legumes May Be Solution of Problem.

By R. F. Fuelleman, Assistant in Crop Production, University of Illinois, WNU Service.

Renovation of thin sods and bare spots by means of scarification and the seeding of legumes may be the solution of the pasture problem on many farms.

Renovation is especially useful on pastures that should not be plowed or that have only small areas that are in need of attention. Such areas can be located this summer for treatment in the fall.

First step is to test the soil and apply needed limestone in the fall. Phosphates can be applied prior to scarification, which consists of tearing up the grass sod with a disc set at a sharp angle. The ground is then harrowed.

Usually the three dry weather legumes—alfalfa, sweet clover and red clover—are seeded along with some timothy. In most cases it will pay to firm the seed bed by rolling after the seeding. Grasses may be seeded in this process, but the prime objective of renovation is the establishment of deep rooted, drought-resistant, nitrogen gathering legumes. Timothy is usually seeded with the legumes since it insures a greater percentage of grass during the first and second years than would ordinarily be present. After renovation it is well to manage the pasture in such a way that the legumes have an opportunity to reseed themselves.

This practice is not recommended on good pasture sods which may need only a little rest. Neither is it recommended for steep hillsides.

Hens Need Special Care During Hot Summer Days

In summer weather, it is well to give some consideration to the hens, whether on range or in confinement, advises a poultryman in Wallace's Farmer.

First, examine their quarters for mites. If any are present, get right after them with a good painting of the roosts with some anti-mite preparation. Hens can scarcely stand both mites and hot weather, much less lay eggs. Lice, too, should be exterminated if any are present.

Another menace to the summer health of hens is the open corn crib. If a hen frequents the crib daily, she is apt to eat too much corn and to become too fat to lay, and perhaps so fat that she will drop dead. Many young poultry raisers, not noticing how their birds run to the crib, say: "I don't know what's the matter with my hens; they are dying so!" Their grandmothers probably could tell them that the trouble is too much corn.

In summer, some grief is caused by the broody hen. If not broken up immediately, broodiness almost always ruins a good layer. She will hold to the nest without laying, and will dwindle in size until weak. Some poultry raisers simply gather up their broody hens and sell them. But, if what a culler once said at one farm is true, that policy is unwise. He said, "Your hens have almost culled themselves. The best ones have gone to sitting."

To break up broodiness, place the hens in a slat-bottomed coop so that the air can circulate under it. Offer the birds plenty of mash and fresh water.

Hog Cholera

Cholera is to hogs what blackhead is to turkeys, except that hog growers are luckier than turkey growers in that one can vaccinate against hog cholera, whereas this cannot be done for turkeys, advises a writer in the Missouri Farmer. Blackhead can be prevented by an operation—the blind intestines can be tied off almost entirely, which prevents the cecal worms from gaining access to these pouches, but the operation is both expensive and risky and is therefore impractical. Strict sanitation will prevent blackhead, however—sanitation and a balanced ration—which is also the case with nearly all diseases.

Agricultural Briefs

Parts of Australia have not sufficient water for the sheep this year.

Changing hens from one home to another is sure to stop production.

A dairy cow drinks about 11½ tons of water a year, an average of 8 gallons a day.

Meat which is to be home cured should be thoroughly cooled out but not allowed to freeze before being put in brine.

Average weight of farm work horses in New York state is about 1,400 pounds; the weights vary between 1,200 and 1,500 pounds.

Illinois poultrymen have been feeding whole oats in separate hoppers along with other grains. They report that the birds stay in better condition as a result.

Cloque Is Magic Word in Fabrics

There's Nothing Smarter for Immediate Wear.

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Let your fashion "first" this fall be a daytime dress of some one or other of the new cloque weaves. There is nothing smarter for immediate wear. Some of the raised designs stand out as if sculptured. For the most part the new cloque frocks are simply fashioned with the intent that fetching costume jewelry be worn with them.

A novelty is a new material called cross-dye cloque. It is woven in two colors so as to give the effect of printed design. For the conservative black foundation gown, select a cloque weave. It will undoubtedly carry a convincing style message no matter how simply the dress is made.

High-Hatting It

Hats are tall. Hats are diminutive. Hats are spectacular. The tall cuff hat shown below in the picture takes on a flattering softness done in golden honey-colored suede. The small crown is dark brown to match the short sleeved bolero of sheared beaver. The towering arrangement of feathers on the hat centered in the trio is typical of a new fashion trend. At the top a high cone-shaped hat interprets a leading trend. Narrow strips of black suede are interwoven to form the whole hat. A wisp of veil softens the lines. Note the stunning gold costume jewelry she wears.

Costume Jewelry Is Rage for Fall

According to the signs of the times we are to wear more costume jewelry than ever this fall and winter. The new jewelry is anything but conservative. The trend is toward massive types. Some of the pins and clips and pendants are enormous. Dangling effects are the newest and apparently leaf design is the favorite motif. Earrings are conspicuously in the picture.

There is also a revival of cameos and such oldtime stones as garnet, amethysts and so on. The new high hairdress calls for fancy combs and the jewelry counters are displaying them in endless variety.

Tie-Girdles and Sashes in Favor

One of the distinctive styling treatments is the use of tie-girdles and sashes and ribbon bow ties for fastenings. You will see this movement throughout costume design.

Cloth coats have cravat ties of self fabric or flat fabriclike fur at the neckline. The new streamline full blouses have self ties at throat and at waistline.

Evening gowns display novel sashes some of which tie directly in front with long streamers. It is truly a season of fluttering bow fastenings and versatile tie treatments.

Style Notes

Copper is stressed in new metal effects.

Lumber-jacket suit is the big news for fall.

New styles feature quaint high Victorian sleeves.

Velvet princess frocks are selling to the teen-age.

Hoopskirt petticoats are worn with full-skirted party frocks.

With soft tailored tweeds wear wood jewelry and wood buttons.

Costume jewelry accents leaf theme and huge dangling gadgets.

Angora knit "cuddly" sweaters also boleros come with matching angora hats.

Violets are pinned to suit lapels to accent importance of violet color schemes.

WILMOT

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nolan, Oak Park, spent Sunday at the Carey home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Lewis and daughter, Laura Lee, and Eugene Wilbur, all of Milwaukee, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burroughs.

David Kimball was seriously injured Sunday and is a patient at the Elkhorn hospital under the care of Dr. Miller of Genoa City. Mr. Kimball was cutting sudan grass, with a scythe, for his cattle when he accidentally slipped and fell on the blade of the scythe, cutting a bad gash in his right knee cap.

Funeral services, with Rev. John Finan officiating, were held at the Holy Name church at nine o'clock Monday morning with burial in Holy Name cemetery, for Mrs. Annabelle O'Brien Madden, 58, wife of Fred Madden, who died Friday morning, October 21, after a long illness.

The deceased was born in Chicago on July 5, 1880, and after the death of her mother spent most of her youth with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kerwin, of Silver Lake.

In 1905 she was married to Fred Madden of Wilmot, who with five children survive: Mrs. Margaret Rauen, Chicago; LeRoy Madden, Kenosha; Winsor Madden, Wilmot; Hazel Long and Patricia Madden, Wilmot.

Mrs. Madden spent all of her married life in Wilmot and was a highly respected member of the community.

Grace Sutcliffe and Dr. Kenneth McEwen, Oak Park, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sutcliffe.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blood of Lake Geneva were in Wilmot Sunday calling on friends. They have sold their home here to William Harm.

Over six hundred attended funeral services for Rev. S. Jdele, pastor of the Peace Lutheran church at Wilmot Saturday afternoon. Four ministers officiated: Rev. H. J. Diehl, of Lake Geneva at the private services at the house at 12 o'clock. The body was then taken to the church to lie in state until two o'clock. The English sermon at the church was delivered by Rev. E. Benjamin Schlueter, of Oshkosh; the German by Rev. Julius Klingman, of Watertown. Rev. Klingman confirmed Rev. Jdele, and in August of this year the latter preached the fiftieth anniversary sermon for Rev. Klingman as pastor at Watertown. At the Wilmot cemetery Rev. Otto Heidtke of Morton Grove, Ill., was in charge of the burial service.

Sunday special English reformation services will be held next Sunday at 9:30 a. m. The Holy Communion service will be held also.

Erminie and Grace Carey were in Milwaukee for the day, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. George Higgins and Mrs. David Kimball were in Elkhorn Monday afternoon to call on David Kimball at the Elkhorn hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schultz and Peggy Schott were in Burlington Wednesday for the funeral services of Harold Flecker.

There will be a Halloween party for the children of the M. E. Sunday school at the church hall on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McDougall were in Chicago the first of the week.

Union Free High School

Norris Farms defeated the Wilmot football team on the home grounds Friday afternoon 12-7. It was the home coming game and very well attended. The homecoming dance, with the Schmalfeldt orchestra was held in the gymnasium that evening and was a very successful affair.

The High school P. T. A. is sponsoring a card party and dance at the gymnasium Friday night, Oct. 28. The proceeds will be given towards the fund for outfitting the school band. The general public is invited.

The annual school carnival is to be held on November 18. Committees to have charge of the affair have been appointed.

The music committee of the Union Free High School Parent Teachers Association has set the purchase of uniforms for the band as its primary project. It is hoped that this enterprise will be one in which the whole county will take an active civic pride.

The U. F. H. S. band was the only Kenosha county organization to represent the county at a state sponsored music festival at Whitewater. This band received a second place in the concert event.

It is rather certain the U. F. H. S. band will participate in future music festivals. Uniforms will enhance the possibilities of a high rating in parade competition.

A music festival of this type offers an exceptional opportunity to show what this county can do.

By placing a uniformed band in competition it is certain that this will advertise Kenosha county and give it a formidable place in public opinion.

Name Isabella, Believed Originally From Jeebel

The name Isabella, like Isabel, has long been considered a form of Elizabeth, meaning "consecrated to God," but it probably came originally from "Jeebel," meaning "consecrated to Baal," Baal being the "false god" of the Hebrews. One authority, writes Florence A. Cowles in the Cleveland Plain Dealer, says Jeebel probably meant "chaste, or pure." Many are the royal women who have borne the name of Isabella.

Isabella of Bavaria (d. 1435), wife of Charles VI of France, did not lead a life above reproach, nor did Isabella, wife of Edward II of England.

Isabella I (d. 1504), joint ruler with Ferdinand of Spain, is the most famous bearer of the name in history, for she it was who, legend says, sold her jewels to raise money to finance Columbus' voyage to the New world.

Isabella d'Este, Marchesa of Mantua, Fifteenth century, was so charming that she was called "the first lady of the world." Isabella, daughter of the Earl of Mar, was the first wife of Robert Bruce.

There is a light brown color called Isabella after Isabella of Austria, daughter of Philip II, who vowed not to change her linen until Ostend was captured. But the siege lasted from 1601 to 1604, so—well, enough said.

Broadway in England

Broadway in America is but one street, but visitors who seek Broadway in England find that it is one of the loveliest villages of Warwickshire, and it also consists of but one street lined with homes centuries old embowered in vines and flowers.

Lightning Through Openings

There is no scientific knowledge to support the general belief that lightning which strikes buildings usually comes in through open doors and windows. Simpson's Nuggets of Knowledge says that lightning might have a tendency to follow a draft only when the air stream is filled with smoke or vapor, thus creating a better conductor of electricity than the surrounding atmosphere. Electricity generated in the clouds follows the line of least resistance to the earth and would not turn from its normal course to run horizontally merely because a door or window was open.

Chow Called Strange Dog

Strangest of all dogs is the chow. Usually he gives his affection to his own family only, is aloof with all other humans. He also is the only black-tongued breed. The pups were originated hundreds of years ago in China, says a writer in the Washington Post, have been used as watchdogs, to haul wagons and sleds, even as food. In cold climates their furry hides have served as clothing. Chow puppies, suitably cooked, are considered a delicacy in southern China. Though not over-friendly, they are loyal, sturdy, have a remarkable sense of direction.

Rhine River Camouflaged

The mighty Rhine river, flowing through half of Europe, is camouflaged when it reaches Holland. The traveler need not ask, when in Holland, where is the Rhine? Not even the natives know. The river branches into many outlets when it reaches Dutch soil and each outlet has been given an individual name, the Dutch being careful to avoid the use of "Rhine." The Waal is part of the Rhine, uniting the Maas, which is known in its southern course as the Meuse, and then on its way to the North sea is neither the Rhine nor the Waal, but the Maas.

New 'You' Seen in Fashion's Mirror

Fall Styles Effect Many Changes in Attire.

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

After you have been coiffed and hatted and gowned in accord with this season's fashion decrees, you will look so made over into a new "you" the reflection in your mirror will cause a feeling of "if I be I as I suppose I be" to take possession of you.

It's this way—hair goes high on top of the head with curls and this new hair-do calls for fancy combs to keep it in place. Sleeves grow bigger, some quite enormous. Others of the dolman variety bespeak a new silhouette and then there are the full bishop sleeves that show up in the streamlined new blouses. Leg o' mutton types too, generously gathered into armholes. Quaint, and giving you a new personality are the Victorian sleeves that fit closely enough to the arm but when it comes to the shoulderline they are gathered to stand up in a puff.

Hats of the "doll type" pose over one eye, and you see more hair at the back than hat. Waistlines are inclined to taper to slenderness. Basque jackets are apt to top skirts in a daguerrotype manner. Stoles and muffs are revived among "little furs" selling for fall and winter.

However, the above is telling only half the story of the year 1938 fashion trends. As a matter of fact, speaking in general, the new fall styles are eminently practical and wearable. The delightful thing is designers have so taken care of the situation it is possible to find styles eminently practical and wearable and as chic and charming as woman of discriminating taste could wish for.

Costume Jewelry

More costume jewelry than ever this season and of the massive type, such is fashion's edict. Enormous clips and brooches also wide bracelets and longest of pendant earrings are scheduled for dramatic contrast against smart black basic dresses. Note the gleaming collar in the picture. This Chanel necklace by Assessorcraft is in gold or silver settings linked together at one end. For the finishing touch of her dinner costume a lady of fashion as shown above clasps her linked bracelet in place. With it she wears matching earrings. In severe black velvet milady is a sparkling addition to any dinner occasion.

Louis XIV Period Motivates Style

Paris is celebrating the 300th birthday anniversary of Louis XIV in a series of fetes and displays. It is readily to be seen that this revival of the beauteous costumes, elegant materials, charming millinery confections, the love of jewelry that was characteristic of those times, the indulgence in plumes and laces and ribbons, would have effect on present day fashions. And so it has. Couturiers have happily taken advantage of the opportunity and their procedure in matters of design has been inspired and influenced by these romantic fashion trends.

Paris Flashes

Bi-color gloves are chic. Leopard jackets register in evening furs. Jewel-trimmed daytime dresses are new for fall. Tie girdles and novel sashes set new style pace. Short fur coats accompany bright wool frocks. The trend is to lower waistlines and high puff sleeves. Bloused silhouette is accented in both dress and coat. The muff and stole idea is exploited in "small furs." Glittering embroidery features in day or night fashions.

Solving Problems

THE world today is faced with many problems—social, economic, financial, political, physical, and mental. Harassed humanity looks this way, then that, for some remedy for its individual and collective difficulties. Too seldom does it find a satisfactory solution. Yet it is a divinely scientific fact that for every problem there is a right solution.

The first chapter of the Holy Scriptures states (Genesis 1:1, 31): "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. . . . And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good." And in the New Testament, John declares of God (1:3): "All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made." Do we believe these Biblical statements? Do we motivate our daily activity by this standard? John's clear vision enabled him to see "a new heaven, and a new earth" (Revelation 21:1), and a new earth, in a degree, attain this pure perception? And as men attain this understanding, is it not certain that world conditions will improve?

"Theoretically, that is true," admits the earnest inquirer; "but how shall we proceed to bring about an effectual change in human thought?" Mary Baker Eddy, in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," gives a succinct reply (p. 318): "The material senses originate and support all that is material, untrue, selfish, or debased. They would put soul into soul, life into limbo, and doom all things to decay. We must silence this life of material sense with the truth of spiritual sense;" and, also (p. 298), "Spiritual sense, contradicting the material senses, involves intuition, hope, faith, understanding, fruition, reality."

Certainly, since the Bible statements in relation to creation are true, and Christendom generally admits that they are, then whatever is not good is not authorized by God, and is therefore not true. To realize this fact is to prove it true in one's own experience. In proportion as it is understood, one may utilize it to the exclusion of any discordant argument or circumstance, just as one rejects a statement that two and two is five when he knows that it is four.

Nehemiah, while living in comfort and security himself as cup-bearer to the king of Persia, heard that his people were in sore straits. Having asked divine guidance, he obtained permission from the Persian king to return and rebuild the walls of Jerusalem. After the work was begun, many were the suggestions of material sense as to lack of numbers, authority, strength, and ability, but Nehemiah steadfastly refused to come down from his God-given work to parley with false arguments, and the wall was completed. For "The people had a mind to work." So will the record (Nehemiah 4:3): "The people had a mind to work." So will the fences of the world today be strengthened in proportion as those with spiritual vision work without ceasing in the cause of righteousness and peace.

The primary problem of the world today is to gain an understanding of God. When men can be induced to give attention to this endeavor, they will find world problems being solved as naturally as are problems in mathematics when the right rules are applied.

God is Love. With love as the leading motive in the world, what would become of war? Does anyone wish to kill a beloved friend or to deprive him of anything? And as men know God, the loving, all-powerful Father-Mother, giving liberally of good to all, what becomes of unemployment? The problem is solved as one expresses whatever of good lies within his present opportunity. As his right activity increases he will find not only that he himself is of more and more help to others, but also that others are more and more gratefully helpful to him. Thus will the world's varied difficulties be diminished and finally overcome.

Christ Jesus, the Way-shower, has given us the perfect example in loving service, in his overcoming of the world. . . . Though there may be frequent overtures, "God is working His purpose out," as the words from a hymn declare, and those not mesmerized by the world's mistakes made in the effort to solve its problems, are joyously advancing and aiding in the true solution. . . . The Christian Science Monitor.

St. Paul a Roman Citizen
St. Paul the Apostle, formerly Saul of Tarsus, came of an Aramaic-speaking family. He was a Roman citizen. Long after his conversion he retained a certain pride in his Jewish birth and a great affection for his own people. Though born outside Palestine, he was brought up, not as a Greek-speaking Jew or Hellenist, but as a Hebrew. This last denotes a difference of language and manners. Accordingly, he spoke Aramaic fluently.

Where Walnut Caterpillar Feeds

The walnut caterpillar feeds on the leaves of various trees including walnut, hickory, beech, oak, willow, and thorn apples. The female deposits about 200 or more eggs on the under side of the leaf where the young hatch and do their feeding. The larvae or caterpillars have the habit of creeping down the tree trunks in masses when they are ready to molt. When they are full grown in the fall they enter the ground to pupate, where they pass the winter.

Clarinet Perfect Instrument

The clarinet usually has 18 holes in its slender hardwood body. Half are controlled by the fingers, half by keys. Clarinet comes from a Latin word, clarus, meaning clear and in fullness of tone. It's the most perfect of wind instruments.

Plan Home for Legion Post at Gurnee, Illinois

At the invitation of a number of former Legionnaires residing in the village of Gurnee, George M. Illich, commander of the Admiral William A. Moffet Post 771, will hold an open house and get together meeting on the evening of Tuesday, Nov. 1, at Depke's Garage, Grand Avenue, Gurnee, 8 o'clock.

District Commander William Seymour and other prominent Legionnaires will be present. There will be speeches, Illich says, but just a brief explanation of the purposes of the Legion, the need for a post at Gurnee.

At present the Moffet Post is a roving one, having no home town. Should this meeting prove to meet its sponsors' expectations, Gurnee will be represented at the district council by the Admiral Moffet Post.

LAKE VILLA SCHOOL NEWS

Upper Room

We are having some review tests on different subjects. So far we have had history, geography and health.

We received our pictures today and some of them were very nice. Mr. Dixon's seemed to disappear very mysteriously (?) just before his room asked to see them. Come clean, Mr. Dixon. Ours were so hot lether.

John Christensen was in Chicago over the week-end to see Betty and Myrtle Grum. They attended our school one year. Friday afternoon we listened to the radio at 2:30 on WJJD to hear Betty's room sing. They sing very nicely.

Lenore Groebli is giving a birthday party for all the girls in her room, and is inviting a few from Miss Dexter's room. It will be held at her home right after school. She will be 12 years old.

Intermediate Room

During science class of last week we performed an experiment during which we produced oxygen by heating some chemicals and showed the effect of oxygen on fire. One of the demonstrations was the burning of fire in oxygen. This experiment showed that oxygen is one of the necessary elements of burning.

We have a little guppy fish in our room. It is very small with a little round head. It is very pretty. We put it in a glass bowl. We put about 2 inches of water in it. It has the company of a few snails, some of which are large and some small. There are about ten of them.

Primary Room

Hello, Bill! We hope you are able to come to our Halloween party. Perhaps your pony would like to bob for apples, too.

Susie and Irving are wondering if they might borrow some one's false teeth just long enough to bob for apples at our party.

Kathleen has gone to Indianapolis for the week.

Our party will be in the afternoon instead of the evening. We don't want to meet up with any of the flying witches that no doubt will be flying around on their broomsticks after dark.

Susie, Barbara, and Kathleen have already read all the new books for this year.

The third grade have finished one reader and are in their second.

Our pictures came in the morning mail. Buddy Neumann said, "Oh, boy, mine looks just like me but what a picture." Bob Thompson said, "Oh, never mind, Bud, mine isn't much better than the one I drew myself." But really they are all very good. Tom Saltzger said, "Some of these guys must have thought they were better looking than they really are."

Don't forget your dimes for Wednesday afternoon.

Additional School Notes

The seventh and eighth grade pupils had a candy sale Tuesday, Oct. 18, before the movies.

The Junior Citizens club elected new officers. They are: Pres., Gady's Keiser, Vice-Pres., Robert Hodgkins; Secretary, John Meyer; and Treasurer, Bill Efinger.

The girls' team played Gurnee Grade school, Oct. 17 in a game of baseball and defeated them by a score of 32 to 17. The boys have no more games so they have been playing soccer ball.

We have a spatter gun in school and we have been painting leaves and making our design, then painting them with the gun. Some of them are very pretty.

Our Halloween party has been changed to the 29th of October instead of the 31st, because there will be no school on the 31st.

Intermediate Room—Our room is going to have a Halloween party on Friday evening, Oct. 28. We will have a treasure hunt and wherever the hunt ends we are going to roast hot dogs and marshmallows. Then we are coming to the school and play games.

Our room has two unusual pets—lizards. They are funny looking things—black with brown spots on them. We enjoy looking at them even if they aren't pretty.

Our President for this week is Junior Miller. He has chosen the following: for Councilor, Rose Mary; to take care of the playground, Marilyn; clean-up committee, Betty and Oliver; Lois and Edna Jean for current events, also Bertha Myer.

Our room has enjoyed using the spatter gun. We have painted real leaves and made them look very pretty.

Primary Room—Sorry you couldn't have been here for the party, Tom. Homemade apple pie and pumpkin pie.

Dorothy has typed some very interesting language papers for seat work in second and third grades.
